OUR LADY OF THE BOWED HEAD

Vienna, Austria, A.D. 1610

Venerable Dominic of Jesus and Mary found an oil painting of Our Lady in a pile of rubbish and brought it home. Once, while he was carefully dusting it, Our Lady smiled and nodded her head at him. She also promised that those who honor this picture will have many graces, and they will have their prayers answered, especially prayers for souls in Purgatory.

OUR LADY OF THE WINDOW PANE

Austria, 1797 A.D.

One cold snowy day unusual markings showed up on a glass window pane in the home of the Buecher family. Their 18-year-old daughter Rosina was the first to notice it while she was sewing and she showed it to her mother. The family decided that the picture looked like the Blessed Virgin and they gave it to their church. The gift made the people of the parish happy and they were blessed with many miracles of healing.
