

CONTENTS

	Page
The Birth of Mary	2
Mary Learns About God	4
Mary Helps Her Mother	6
Mary Offers Herself to God	8
Mary Plays With Her Little Friends	10
Mary Studies	12
Mary Praises God	14
Mary Works for God	16
Mary and Joseph	18
A Messenger From Heaven	20
Mary Visits Elizabeth	22
The Journey to Bethlehem	24
No Room in the Inn	26
Entering the Cave	28
The Birth of Jesus	30
The Angel of the Lord	31

OUR MOTHER MARY

by Father Francis

NIHIL OBSTAT: John A. Schullien, S.T.D., censor librorum
IMPRIMATUR: † W. E. Cousins, D.D., Archiepiscopus Milwauchiensis
Milwauchiæ, die 26a iunii, 1959

DEAR CHILDREN,

This is a book all about Mary,
God's own dear Mother.

Have you ever had a book that could talk? This book is filled with beautiful talking pictures. You will not only see your dear Mother Mary in pictures, but you will really hear her talk to you. She will show you how to grow up just as she did — in God's Love and Truth.

FATHER FRANCIS

The Birth of Mary

Joachim: Anne, behold our gift from God!

Anne: Mary! Our Baby Mary! Isn't she beautiful, Joachim?

Joachim: Yes, Anne, a sight for angels to behold. She is as fair as a lily.

Anne: The light of grace shines in her eyes.

Joachim: Her smile is like the smile of an angel.

Anne: It is, indeed. She is not at all for this world.

Joachim: She is God's own little child. We must let Him have His way with her.

Anne and Joachim: We thank You, Heavenly Father, for this precious gift. May we be worthy to guide and guard Your little one on her way to You.

Mary Learns About God

Mary: Mother, will you read to me, please?

Anne: Yes, my child. Mother is always happy to read the holy psalms to you.
“All the glory of the King’s daughter is within. . . .”

Mary: Am I a King’s daughter?

Joachim: You are a King’s daughter, and you are beautiful within.

Mary: How can that be, Father?

Joachim: When God made you, Mary, He gave you a body and a soul — a soul filled with God’s own Light and Beauty.

Anne: And in your precious soul is the living God. He is your King.

Mary: I am so happy. I am the King’s daughter and God lives in me.

